

WELCOME TO SOUTH MIDWOOD, A CULTURALLY DIVERSE VICTORIAN COMMUNITY!

The South Midwood area can trace its roots back to the 17th century, when Dutch settlers “came over” from Manhattan looking for more elbow room. The settlers founded a village in the midst of the woods, between the present day Prospect Park and the ocean; hence the name “Midwout” — meaning middle woods. Over time, it has become a vibrant and diverse community of people with beautiful homes and streets and desirable apartments near bustling business centers and transportation hubs. It offers urban convenience and suburban spaciousness.

South Midwood boasts one of the oldest active community organizations in the country, with the South Midwood Residents Association being founded in 1901. We are proud to continue this tradition locally within our neighborhood, and more extensively in collaboration with other civic associations.
